Kids & Teens Medical Group Founder, Dr. Janesri De Silva, a Delegate to the California Medical Association, Contributes Influence on Important Policies for Change as Part of Ongoing Mission for Advancing Health Equity in the Community

(Los Angeles, CA) – Under the leadership of its esteemed founder, Janesri De Silva, MD, FAAP, a board-certified pediatrician and healthcare leader, the Kids & Teens Medical Group has grown into Southern California's largest independent pediatric network making a difference in children's wellness.

A delegate to the California Medical Association, Dr. De Silva leverages her continued advocacy in the community through her influential vote on key issues and policies for change.

Representing excellence in care, Kids & Teens Medical Group will be participating as a Tier 1 partner at USC's Health Benefits Fair on October 6.

Serving children and families throughout Los Angeles County, "Our organization has achieved so much since its inception and we look forward to doing even more so every child in every community receives the attention and treatment they deserve," states Dr. De Silva.

L.A. Care individually recognized her commitment to outstanding care this year with the Social Determinants of Health Award. Kids & Teens Medical Group was further honored by L.A. Care in 2024 with the Health Equity Award, in recognition of its demonstrable work in reducing healthcare disparities and improving outcomes for vulnerable populations.

Since founding the organization in 2007, Dr. De Silva has continued her dedication to advancing health equity, preventive care, and improving access for underserved communities. Under her stewardship, the organization has developed innovative programs focused on community outreach, care coordination, and culturally responsive healthcare delivery.

This further includes initiatives in Sri Lanka, from which Dr. De Silva is a native, as part of her ongoing effort to bring medical attention and support to communities with limited access to care.

Wielding her lifelong commitment, Dr. De Silva underscores, “We are dedicated to ensuring that every child has the opportunity to thrive regardless of socioeconomic background.”

The Kids & Teens Medical Group further offers a convenient Telehealth service for remote medical consultations wherever the family is—providing direct access to board-certified pediatricians from the comfort of one’s couch.

The Kids & Teens Medical Group has expanded its highly revered pediatric care across 25 clinic locations throughout Los Angeles and surrounding regions; further establishing why the organization is the largest pediatric medical network in Southern California: Agoura Hills, Arcadia, Beverly Hills, Camarillo, Canyon Country, Culver City, Downey, Glendale, Hollywood, La Cañada, La Mirada, Mission Hills, Northridge, Pasadena, Pico Rivera, San Fernando, San Pedro, Santa Monica, Tarzana, Torrance, Valencia, Van Nuys, West Hills, and Whittier; including its Telehealth service.
